

1 Courthouse

The courthouse was built in 1891, and was designed by famed architect J. Reilly Gordon for a cost of $87,356.10. It was renovated in 2004.

2 Muster Oak Tree

The Muster Oak tree on the northeast corner of the square. It was from this spot that Captain Dawson in 1842 gathered a group of 53 courageous men to aid in the Texas-Mexican Revolution.

3 Jail Building

This 1883 structure served Fayette County as the County Jail for over 100 years. This building is now home to the La Grange Area Chamber of Commerce. Visitors are welcomed to come and get information on all the local businesses.

La Grange, a wondrous town filled with opportunities for lasting memories. Nestled in the middle among Austin, Houston, and San Antonio, La Grange is the destination for a weekend get-away. Enter the town through the majestic rolling landscape where Monument State Park sits upon a hill overlooking the Colorado River and La Grange. Explore the outskirts of town with a hike in the parks and along the river. Then take an unforgettable stroll into the town square where our Historic District is filled with shops. Stop by the historic Muster Oak Tree on the corner of the district and take a tour of the courthouse and jail building. Experience La Grange for yourself, it is the place for making lasting memories.

Visit La Grange
www.visitlagrange.com
 171 S. Main
 La Grange, TX 78945
 932-526-9045

Historic District

La Grange has many historical sites awaiting for your visit. There are two heritage museums full of culture on the edges of town and the Historic District in the middle of our town. The old city cemetery contains majestic Italian marble statues and obelisk markers.

Get out and start moving with hiking trails, biking trails, kayaking, or just walking. La Grange has many locations and sports stores that host outdoor activities.

La Grange has a variety of restaurants to satisfy your appetites. Dining in or take out, there is a place for you.

Stay a night or a week at one of La Grange's fine lodging options. Find cabins, hotels, motels, inns, bed and breakfasts awaiting your call for a reservation or just stop by.

Historic Sites, Museums, and Outdoor Parks

4 Old City Cemetery

Wander through the Old La Grange City Cemetery that features Texas State Historical Markers, ornate Italian marble statuary and wooden markers that have become almost illegible over time.

5 Monument Hill State Park

The tomb here is the resting place of the men who drew the "Black Beans of Death." Hike on the nature trails to get to visit the Kreische house on the hill and the Kreische Brewery Ruins at the bottom of the hill.

6 Noel Faison's House

Visit the home of N.W. Faison, a survivor of the Dawson Massacre in the War with Mexico. The home was built by Faison in 1841. Tour the home with original and replica furnishings.

1 Fayetteville Heritage Museum

Fayetteville's museum showcases the county's rich history. View the exhibits, genealogy, microfilm, data back to early 1800s.

2 Czech Heritage Museum

Take a self-guided trail in Czech/English, Kalich Home with Czech gifts, amphitheatre, and Fair Pavilion with original hardwood floors.

Local Parks

Jaycee Park, Kruschel Memorial Park, and Lester Park are three local parks located conveniently around town for outdoor activities.